“ I’m an old friend from West View Park in Catonsville. We kept in touch over the years after her & Tom moved. I tried calling her today to wish her Christmas wishes & her phone message said it was no longer in service. I send a message but had a funny feeling. Looked up o its & saw that she had passed. So sad. Will miss our conversations. Condolences to her family.’

“ Knowing Tom and Judy Dovey as we have since their move from Baltimore to Conway in 1992, we've enjoyed their friendship and fellowship in the Lord. Both Tom and Judy have been models of commitment to their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, their family and their country. Both will be sorely missed for their presence and many expressions of their love for the Lord and other people, both within the church and in the community. Rev. & Mrs. J. R. ("Randy") Riddle
