“ *To Phil and Family,
I'm so sorry to read in the Valley News of Judy's passing. I had actually thought about her a short time ago. We had some great times in the summers at her parents' farm and she enjoyed watching me walk through the barnyard wearing my flip-flop sandals. Then, we shared some fun times as adults at your house in Lyme. May remembering all the good times with family and friends help at this sad time. Say "hi" to Jill for me.*
