August 31, 1942 - September 23, 2024

Judith Romanelli, age 82, died on Monday September 23, 2024 at her residence.

Born in Oklahoma City, OK, Judith was a daughter of the late James Paulk and Agnes Green. Judith was very crafty. She enjoyed drawing, crocheting, and sewing. She would sew clothes for her children. Judith also enjoyed jigsaw puzzles and her beloved yorkie. She was a huge lifelong Green Bay Packers fan. Last September, she went to her first Packers game against the Saints and witnessed the largest comeback in Green Bay Packers history. She had an amazing time. She was a very kind soul with a huge heart, who loved genuinely and was very welcoming in her family. She wouldn't hesitate to let you know what was on her mind, but loved to no end. She truly was an angel with a warrior's mentality. Judith is preceded in death by her husband, Louis Romanelli, and her sister, Beverly Greene.

Survivors include her children, Diana Marie Graham, Carol Romanelli-Crotts (John), Robert Anthony Romanelli (Teresa), James Romanelli (Valerie); grandchildren Carl Abrams, Neil Romanelli, Michael Snell, James Martin, Dominic Snell, Amanda Bennett, Taylor Hansen, Alyssa Harney, Christian Romanelli, Holly Romanelli; sister Kathy Jones; and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.
