“ Thomas, Darin an pastor Wylie, Judy was loved by all. I remember the time we worked side by side in the kitchen getting ready for a big fund raiser for the church...she took the time to show me things an never saw me as a child but as a vessel of God, however small that may seem in the eyes of a child was Hugh. As an adult I can still feel the love she showed to me that day an it has never been forgottenGod looked down an saw she was tired and took her in his arms of rest and safe haven.....we love you Judy you will be missed for a while but we will see you again in glory land...God bless those who are. Hurting may you give them the peace that surpasses all understanding, be with them through the upcoming days and give them comfort. We love you all and are praying for you....Kay, Janie an Bob Todd

“ Judy, Judy, Judy. For the youth at Socastee PH that she loved and that loved her, we will never forget those words and your beautiful laughter. I am honored and blessed to have shared so many beautiful memories of you, particularly our love of music. Thank you for sharing your gifts and talents with all of us. Love you always. Love and prayers and giant HUGS to Thomas and Darin.
