“ We used to live close together. I was probably about 10 and Judy about 14. I had a roughly 10 y.o. parakeet that got out, and I was heartbroken. We put out flyers, and 3 or 4 days later Judy found “Pepe” and brought him home. She was my hero thereafter! Also, her father and my dad were like brothers. When Mr McNair passed, it was the 1st time I ever saw my dad cry. My condolences to Judy’s family!! My God wrap his comforting arms around them...

I have known Judy for many, many years as well as Barbara. We both grew up in the same neighborhood in North Conway and went to the same church, North Conway Baptist. We had many good times growing up together and were friends until the end. Heaven has truly gotten a beautiful Angel. Drucilla Cox Chavis
