“ Ashlie & Destinee, This is not the way I would have wanted to contact you, but circumstances cause us to do things we never would have imagined. We did not have the pleasure of meeting your dad, but,we had the privilege of meeting your mom on a dive trip to Cozumel MX several years ago with Scuba Ventures. We spent a week together on the trip. That was our introduction to June as we called her. She was a joy to be around. Always had a smile on her face and full of life and so much fun. She spoke of her children often on that trip. So you were always a part of whatever she did. We are so sorry to hear of your parents sudden passing and know this is a terrible loss for both of you. Your parents are in God's home now but not a day will pass that they will not be with you. Keep them in your hearts and know they would want you to continue your lives to their fullest capacity. Time will eventually help heal the pain. Know there are friends who you may not know who have you in their thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. If God has not been a part of your life in the past make him a part now and share your grief with Him. He will carry you. We can only put our trust in our Father's hand and know he called them home for a reason. We may not understand why, but know, there was a purpose. You will see them again one day. Our deepest sympathy to both of you and your entire family. Sharon Smith##imported-begin##Sharon & Charlie Smith##imported-end##

“ Gail, Vassie and I are very sorry for the loss of Faye. Vassie reminded me that we just saw her at the beginning of the year in Lowes, and he commented that he hadn't seen her in a while when he saw her, and he just was amazed at this freak accident. We want you to know that we are thinking about you and will remember you in our prayers. I know it's hard to do, but hang in there. God is always with you. Love ya girl. xoxo Carol###imported-begin##Carol Milligan###imported-end##

“ Ashlie & Destinee, I am so sorry for your loss. They will be missed by many. Your family has always opened your home and hearts to me and I will remember the fun we had whether it was at the Harder Family Fourth of July Bash or just Daniel and I coming over to watch TV. Mama Harder was there to give advice and funny stories. I remember the time she cured my hiccups with lemon wedges covered in bitters. I love yall and if there is anything I can do please let me know.###imported-begin##Kaley Goodwin###imported-end##

“ Ashlie and Destinee, I worked with your mom at Century for close to seven years. Destinee, I remember when you came to work and made us those delicious cookies. I don't have the words to express to you how sorry I am that this tragedy has occurred. You two will have to help each other to keep going. Your mom was a person who loved life and believed in living it to the fullest. I know in my heart that is what she wants for you as well. I know she loved you both more than anything and was very proud to be your mother. Remember her strength and draw from it to heal your broken hearts. “ Ashlie and Destinee, I am still in shock over all this, as I am sure you are as well. I can not express just how special your Mother was to me. She was an exceptional woman, a great friend and co-worker, who will remain in my heart forever! I can honestly say knowing her has made me a better person. Hold tight to your memories of both your parents and hold tight to each other, those things will get you through many hard days and nights. Your parents gave you the guidance and wisdom to make it through this and as difficult and painful as it is now, one day you will smile knowing they gave you their all. I am here if you need anything and I will stay in touch. ACT will never be the same without your Mother's cheerful outlook on life. God Bless you both!###imported-begin##Debra Talley###imported-end##

“ Ashlie & Destinee- I never had the priviledge of meeting your parents, but you two girls are a testament to what wonderful people they must have been. They raised two beautiful, charismatic, smart, and respectful young women. Any parent would have felt tremendously blessed to have you as daughters. I know you made them proud! We are thinking about you, praying for you, and we send you our love.###imported-begin##The Henderson Family-Ken, Patti, Marcus, & Rachel###imported-end##
