

Junior Allen

December 16, 1924 - August 17, 2022

Mr. Junior Allen, age 97, passed away Wednesday, August 17, 2022, at home, where he had lived most of his life with his late sister, Lena, and her husband, the late Rev. Don R. Watts. He was surrounded by family.

Born December 17, 1924, he was the son of the late James Sparkman Allen, Sr., and the late Rosa Ola Anderson Allen. Mr. Allen was a longtime member of Zion Pentecostal Holiness Church where he served faithfully. He retired after thirty-five years from Red Hill Chip/New South.

Mr. Allen enjoyed gardening well into his nineties, playing the harmonica whether anyone wanted him to or not, and going on trips to the beach and driving his golf cart. In his later years he perfected the art of napping-and of pretending to nap. He loved spending time with his family more than anything else in the world.

Mr. Allen was predeceased by his parents and several siblings, including Sam, Archie, Hattie, Sadie, Grace, Edna, James Henry, and Carl "Buddy". A special niece, Sarah Parker, and a special nephew, Donald Watts, also preceded him.

Surviving him are his sister Lucille Abbott; special family members Mary Dean Watts, great nephews Darel Watts and Mike Parker (Eugenie), and great nieces Darla Watts Barnette (Layne) and Dana Watts Small (Kye); great great nephew Troy Small; great great nieces Sarah Parker, Kylee Small, and Rylee Small; great great great nephew Kolton Small; and many, many other much-loved nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 PM, Monday, August 22, 2022, at Zion Pentecostal Holiness Church with Rev. Terry Prosser officiating. Burial will follow at Poplar United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Visitation is one hour prior to the service at Zion Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Memorial donations may be made to Zion Pentecostal Holiness Church, 4889 Highway 701 North, Conway, SC 29526.
