“ I knew Ben when we both played softball with the Diehards team in Conway. We had some good times and I still remember him. It has been several years since I last saw him but still have good memories of our playing days.
Praying the family will find peace in this dark hour knowing there is a brighter day coming. RIP Ben.

“ As a very young boy, I remember Mr. Reavis ... it was not until I was older (and moved back to Conway) that I began to appreciate him and his heart. Thankful for his salvation and with that, his eternal life with Christ ... will be praying for the family.
