“ Justin and I were together during a trying time in our lives with Juvenile Justice. He was a guy that was like any other boy developing as a man, he bumped his head and got on the wrong path, just like everyone else.

But what set Justin apart was the humor and spirit that he kept during his trying times. That's the person I got to know. I thank God for showing me a spirit that was similar to me, looking to keep faith alive during any time that God gives as a testament.

I have confidence in his spirit living on in eternal life, as his nature spoke of the goodness of God's infinite grace and mercy.

“ Justin; wow, I can't believe your really gone. I remember when we were young and we hung out and had fun, then you moved away and I didn't talk to you for a long time. When you moved back we hung out once or twice and everytime I saw you, you were so happy and you always had a smile on your face. I'm really going to miss you Justin. You will be in my heart forever. Watch over us. I love you

“ I can't believe this happened to you of all people but you know what they say "only the good die young". I keep thinking I'll wake up from this bad dream. Justin you were one of the best guy friends a girl could ever have, you gave the best advice and you were always there when I needed someone to talk to. I remember when we were at the breakers & we went in the hot tub and you had your phone in your pocket and it started vibrating haha. I remember we were supposed to get matching tattoos and the fun times at school we had together. You would always walk me and Sarahh to class. This school year is not going to be the same without you. We had a lot of good memories together. You always had a smile on your face no matter what, and you always made me smile even when i didn't want to. But you'll always be with me in my heart and we'll be together again someday. I know your in heaven smiling down :) we all know your in a better place. I'm one of many of the luckiest people to have known you and became friends with you. I love you Justin Tyler Sitkowski. You will never be forgotten. Your family & friends are in my prayers.###imported-begin##Ashley Corley###imported-end##

“ Dear Danny & Dawn, We are both so deeply saddened by the loss of your son. To be taken from you at such a young age makes our grief pale in comparison to the pain you are feeling, but we had to let you know that we are sharing your loss in our own way. No one knows why bad things happen to those so innocent and whose life has hardly begun. For now it will have to remain the painful mystery that it is. Losses like this can make us challenge our faith; however, this is precisely the time when our faith needs to be its strongest. I am praying that your faith will help you through this very difficult time and help you to know that God's purpose, whatever it may be, is at work. I pray that you will find the strength to get you through your grief and sadness. If there is anything we can do let us know Love John and Family##imported-begin##John Wall and family##imported-end##
