

Karen "Kay" Brickell

August 30, 1944 - April 14, 2020

Myrtle Beach, SC...Karen "Kay" Brickell, age 75, passed away Tuesday, April 14, 2020.

Karen (Kay) Brickell was born on August 30th, 1944 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, a daughter of the late William and Gertrude Chapman. Kay primarily grew up in Norfolk, Virginia and was a 1962 graduate of Matthew Fontaine Maury High School. During the mid-sixties, Kay and husband Charlie Brickell relocated to the Washington DC metro area to start their careers and raise a family. Over the next 40+ years, Kay held positions at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and Potomac Electric Power Company (Pepco), while also serving as a stay-at-home-mother.

Kay was very committed to God and the church, spending many years as a member of both the First Baptist Church of Waldorf and Calvary Gospel Church, both in Waldorf, MD. As a committed Christian, Kay was very passionate about serving God and Jesus Christ in both church choirs, using her magnificent voice as a vehicle to reach and touch people's hearts.

One of Kay's true passions and hobbies was to travel with Charlie. Kay visited all 50 states in the USA, with Alaska, Hawaii, and the American west states being some of her favorites. In addition, Kay visited Israel to visit the holy sites that were so meaningful to her as a Christian.

In 2012, Kay and Charlie moved to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina to enjoy their retirement years. Kay continued to serve God at the Grand Strand Baptist Church in Myrtle Beach, where she also touched people with her voice and made many friends. Kay, Charlie, and their dog Smokey maintained their love for travel while in Myrtle Beach, taking their camper all over the United States to visit numerous historic landmarks and sites.

Surviving are her husband of 58 years, Charlie Brickell, two sons, Chris Brickell (Sabine) of Ashburn, VA and Mark Brickell (Crystal) of Huntingtown, MD, three grandchildren, Amanda Brickell, Christopher Brickell and Jacob Brickell, two brothers, William "Bill" Chapman (Serene) of Myrtle Beach, SC and Lanny Chapman (Kathy) of Huntingtown, MD, and one sister, Phyllis Forbes (Clarence) of Myrtle Beach, SC.

She was predeceased by her parents William and Gertrude Chapman, brother Donald Polston, sister Faye Bachelor, sister Inez Carpenter, sister Delores Futrell and sister Judi Belyea.

Services will be held in Waldorf, MD.

“ I’m so sadden to hear of Kay’s passing. She was such a blessing to me and the ministry of Coastline Women’s Center. I could always count on her support. I’m just stunned and will miss her so.

“ Kay and I bunked together during one Women’s Aglow retreat in Ocean City. As always was the case with Kay, she never felt the need to stay glued to anyone in the group because her focus wasn’t on socialization, it was about meeting with Jesus. I got back to the room first and was doing busy doing something when she came in. We were chatting for a bit and she suddenly fell quiet then uttered the most mournful sound I’d ever heard in my life. When I turned to look at her, sitting on the bed, I found her weeping inconsolably. Key, I kept asking, what’s wrong?? When she could finally speak through her gut wrenching sobs, she said, oh Penny, I can feel it. What? I asked. Our sin, she said. I can feel how God feels about our sin.

What do you say in that moment, when the Spirit of God is talking to you through the voice of your beloved friend? Nobody...and I mean nobody loved Jesus more than Kay. She was my mother in Christ, I learned so very much from her. I have more stories to share, and will.

“ Upon meeting Kay for the first time, we soon realized we knew some of the same people that worked at Potomac Electric Power Co. from years ago. I will truly miss Kay's enthusiasm and Love that she radiated for our Savior.

“ Charlie, Mark, Chris & Families...I am so sorry, your loss is tremendous for our dear Godly, loving, and talented Kay! What a great loss we are sharing. My dear friend Kay, since 1978, great times together in Maryland and a friend I prayed for everyday for years, has gone to her heavenly home...but how we will miss her! I was happy for her and Charlie to move to Myrtle, but sad for me, but a heart's desire for her, so glad she had much time there. I did get to talk to her last week and glad for that, although sad we didn't get to face time it. You all will be in my prayers as well as the extended family. Love to all...

“ Kay was my daughters Sunday School teacher at Waldorf Baptist years ago. When I moved to SC in 2014, I met Kay again at a ladies Maryland luncheon at which she guided me to Grand strand Baptist church. When Kay would do her solos it gave me chills! She had a beautiful voice, she will be missed, she is now singing with Jesus and the angels.

“ So sorry to hear about "Kay's" passing to be with the Lord! She was a special person and she had a beautiful voice. I sang in the choir with her at First Baptist Church of Waldorf. I remember that Kay did not like the smell of perfume in the choir loft; and to this day I still do not wear perfume while singing in the choir. My love and prayers are with the family! “ As a loyal and faithful member of our church in Waldorf, MD, Kay was loved by many. John and I have many wonderful memories shared with Kay: singing in the choir, going to Israel, church dinners, parties, you name it. Kay was always there smiling and having fun, a true picture of enjoying life to its fullest. She even loved John's sermons!

“ So many wonderful memories with Kay. When I was first saved, she was one of the Christian women who surrounded me in prayer. When God told me to do a concert (I did not know how to sing) she was the first person I called. She came to my home with her kerok machine and taught my husband and myself how to sing. She was a part of the Joy Concert Ministries for many years. She taught me how to lead others into God's presence thru praise & worship. We had many laughs together and shed many tears together. I will always love Kay and know she will be one of those who will welcome me home someday when I enter Heaven. My deepest sympathy goes to Charlie and all of her family. She loved her kids and talked about you with much love. What a gift God gave the world in the form of Kay. Hugs & Blessings to you all.

“ Kay and I attended Maury High School..we loved being in choir and on the drill team. We kept in touch thru the years sharing our love for camping and travelling.

She had a beautiful voice often singing for our youth services on Sunday am. One was her favorite O Holy Night drew applause from her audience. She was a true light in a sometimes dark World.
