“ Karen was a good daughter, sister, and mom. Anthony was usually a handful for her being "all boy" but most boys are. What I miss most is seeing her and Heather scoot around in her truck doing things here and there. Her accident 3-years ago seemed simple enough until I came home and saw the helicopter airlifting her from her yard. She's been ok but she never was herself to come back from the accident. Tubby Martin once told me that "an accident never leaves you where it found you". Karen was tired, and so was her family. She stayed awhile to leave them easy but it was time for her to go home. All of her family has been so supportive during these years. God is pleased with your lives and efforts. Take the time now to grieve and celebrate Karen's home going. May all of you find peace knowing that we'll see her again. We love you all.
