“ My name is Carolyn Cutner, one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I am writing you because I heard of Mr. John's death. Even though I am not able to be there in person, I would like to extend my deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. I would also like to share a few words of comfort from the Holy Scriptures. I know that the death of a loved one can bring much pain and sorrow; but you are not left without hope.--1 Thessalonians 4:13,14 Just knowing that our loving, Heavenly Father has promised you a time when you will be able to see Mr. John again will hopefully bring you some relief during your time of bereavement.--Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29 In addition to having the hope of seeing him again, you have God's promise that one day you won't even have to worry about loosing ANY of your loved ones again to this terrible "enemy", death.-- Revelation 21:3,4; 1 Corinthians 15:26 I truly hope that you are able to find some comfort from God's promises to you. Please share these faith-strenghtening scriptures with family and friends. I'll keep you and the rest of the family in my prayers. Sincerely Yours,
Carolyn Cutner Jehovah's Witness##imported-begin##Carolyn Cutner##imported-end##

“ Phyllis, Frances, Tom & grandchildren, I was so sorry to hear about Jack. I know firsthand, unfortunately, how badly you are hurting right now. I hope that your memories of him will always bring a smile to your face and comfort to your heart. I remember Jack as being a quiet, gentle man who liked a good laugh. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Take care of yourselves, Susan##imported-begin##Mike & Susan Gallagher & family##imported-end##
