“ Karen and I shared some of the best times of our lives here in Palm Coast. She spent holidays with me, family BB's, girls night and and several vacations, including our cruises and NYC. We laughed and cried about life. We shared stories about how she loved Matt and Susan. I helped in her meeting Bob, the love of her life and she helped me in the struggle get get past the death of my Bernie. I'm fortunate enough to have met her Mom and Dad and on occasion I can reach out to them spiritually. My dear, dear friend, I miss you terribly and will always have a smile on my face when I think of some of our adventures and the things we toasted to with Apple Martini's. RIP dear sister. Don't be red penciling this. I love you. God is with you.

“ Karen was a good friend from Stephen Ministry to being my 'pew' mate to her work with Grief Share. We had so many wonderful conversations and laughs. She is sorely missed by not only me but so many others. She was a trooper. My prayers for her son Matt and family and sister Susan. I am sure Bob has welcomed her home. Love you.
