“ Will and Sabrina, Chuck and Kelly, Mr. Jerry and Miss Marlene:

I was so taken back when Mom called to share the news of Karen's passing, especially after having seen her in Washington at the library not too long ago. I had no idea that she had been sick. Yes, a flood of memories has overwhelmed me these past couple of weeks, remembering fun times together with your family. Karen actually introduced me to Dale for the very first time. Who knew it would lead to 25 years of being together before he passed. His mama passed a couple of years ago, but still spoke often of your family and how much she missed you all as neighbors.

Karen was a true friend, and even though life ultimately lead us in different directions and locations, I will always cherish the memories and good times! She did come to Dale's and my home with both Will and Sabrina to share them with me when they were born and during their preschool years. I even babysat you guys a few times. Would love to see you now and meet the "grands" as well.

I am sure that she is at peace with Lewis now, and perhaps she and Dale are again neighbors and friends watching over all of us until we can "ALL" be together one day, which I truly believe. My heart is with each one of you during this time of grief. I can't say that time heals or makes the missing any easier; just the knowledge that she is not suffering and is in a good place now may help each of you every day from now on.

Peace to each one of you and if I ever get down to Myrtle Beach, I will look you up so we can catch-up and get to know each other again.

Love, Cher Oughton Oden-Fox

Will and Sabrina --

In Washington High School days, Karen Case was our daughter's good friend. Our daughter was Cher Oughton. Our family warmed to the sounds of the two girls planning their prom dresses and talking of teachers and classmates. There was always lots of laughter, and Karen's parents were just wonderful. Their family lived in Runion Hills, right next door to the boy whom Cher would one day marry, Dale Oden.

A few years ago, right after Paul and I moved back to Washington, a young woman approached me at Brown Library. She asked if I was Cher's mom. Then she identified herself as Karen Case. We hugged and caught up. She beamed when she told me about her family.

What a special, caring person your mom was. She will always be part of our memory of Cher's high school days. The Karen Case WE knew at our house would say to her children: Live YOUR lives now and remember me, but don't get bogged down in sadness. She was such a generous and sweet spirit. We were privileged to know her.

“ Will, Sabrina Kelly, Chuck, Jerry & Marlene and Family, I know your hearts are broken now but know Karen is suffering no more. There are no words to express the loss you feel for the loss of a child, a mother, a sister or a dear friend. Please know you all are in our thoughts and our prayers that GOD will keep his arms around each of you and ease the pain. Her contagious laughter and smiles will be missed so much but the memories made will last a lifetime. Love you all.
