“ Words can't explain how much I miss you my dear Sister. Talking to you every day, looking at your crazy post on facebook, seeing you in your chair when I walk in your door. Nothing will ever be the same. I know you are safe and pain free in the arms of Jehovah, sleep peacefully until we are together again. I'm putting that Catio on the back of the house like I promised so your fur babies can have a place to play. They miss you too, I can tell. Don't worry, I will continue to take care of them and RO. Love you always and forever.

“ No words can say how much I miss you. I wish I could have found a way to keep you with us longer, but Jehovah had a different plan for you. I have some peace knowing you are not suffering or in pain any longer. I promised you I would take care of your fur babies and RO. He's doing OK but I can tell he is heartbroken missing you. I know he awaits the day he can be with you again. I'm building the fur babies a catio so they can go outside, I know you'll be sitting in there with them. Rest in peace my dear Sister I will see you again.

“ We love you very much. You are going to be missed very very much, by many many people and your animals. I know you are peaceful. I know R.O is missing you. Never have I known a man to love someone as much as he loves you. He has made your chair his new perch along with all your fur babies. Between me and Cheryl I'm sure we will make sure he is taken good care of. I love you forever...
