Kathleen Mary Gabriel

March 18, 2022

Kathleen (Kathy) Mary Gabriel 75, passed away on March 18, 2022 at the Tideland's Waccamaw Community Hospital. She was 75 years old. She is survived by her husband, Larry Gabriel, son Michael Johnson and her two granddaughters, Raegan and Emma. Kathy was born and lived in Bridgeport Ct. until she moved to Pawleys Island S.C. in 1998 with her husband Larry. Kathy retired from SNET (Southern New England Telephone Company) shortly after Larry then moved to South Carolina. Upon settling in Pawleys Island, Kathy worked as the office manager for a local home builder. Kathy loved living here and felt she was blessed to have soon found a number of wonderful friends.

Per Kathy's wishes, a memorial service is planned for April 1, 2022, 11:00 AM at the columbarium area, behind the pond at Precious Blood Catholic church in Pawleys.

“ Larry, Michael, Emma, Raegan and many friends of Kathy. May our memories give us the comfort and peace at this difficult time. I myself keep on going over my last visit with you in Oct 2019. its so vivid, what we spoke of, where we had lunch, going to new developments with me the buyer (lol) and just being in your presence. I love my bestie. Now you rest in peace. Until we meet again. Andrea Lee. Bridgeport, Ct

My heart goes out to you Larry, family and Kathy's dear friends at this very difficult time .
Kathy was a treasure to work with at SNET and extremely knowledgeable . Beautiful smile and always willing to help.
I hope now she is with Joe (her brother in Heaven smiling and having a grand ole time. Rest In Peace Kathy 🙏
