“ I extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to Ms. Kathleen's family and friends. I met Ms. Kathleen when I bought the property across the road from her two years ago. I found her to be a very sweet Christian lady. When I moved Tim Smith, a homeless man, from the woods near downtown Myrtle Beach to my mobile home across the road, she was very accepting. She got him involved in church and brought food to him on several occasions. Tim was good to her as well, helping her with some outside chores. He respected her very much and has kept me informed about her health. I was saddened when he called me tonight to tell me of her passing. If Tim or I can be of service to you in any way, please call me. Tim has my phone number. May God bless you all in this moment of grief.
