

Kathleen Macauley

February 13, 1941 - February 19, 2023

Kathleen D. Macauley, age 82, of Murrells Inlet, passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 19, 2023 at her home.

She was born February 13, 1941 in East Stroudsburg, PA, a daughter of the late Irving and Hazel Lesoine. She attended East Stroudsburg High School and East Stroudsburg University, and was the former owner of the original Big A restaurant in Marshall Creek, PA for 20 years. Kathleen and R. Peter Macauley were married in April of 1994 and from there, Kathleen studied to get her real estate license. Kathleen and Peter moved to South Carolina in 1995 and she continued to work in real estate up until January 2023.

She is survived by her husband, R. Peter Macauley; two sons, John C. Doyle and William J. Doyle and partner Bruce Lazaro; daughter-in-law, Dina M. Doyle; two step-sons, R. Peter Macauley Jr. and Gregory Macauley, and a step-daughter, Patricia Byron. She is also survived by grandchildren, Rashelle E. Doyle, Felecia D. Marlett, Samantha Macauley, Shawna Macauley, Alyssa Macauley, Michael Macauley, Jay Byron, and Michelle Morelli; two sisters, Ruth Straits and Carol Yanovitch; brother, David Lesoine, sister-in-laws, and several nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, please make memorial contributions to St. Paul Lutheran Church, 139 Craigs Meadow Road, East Stroudsburg, PA 18301.

Memorial service will be held 2:00 PM, Saturday, March 4, 2023 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel.

A Memorial Service will be held in Pennsylvania at a later date.

“ Peter, I am so sorry to learn of Kathy's passing.
My last contact with her was when her cancer came back. Since then I never heard from her.
Wishing you and the family God's Blessings.
Kathy was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside.

“ What sweet memories we have! She was one of the first new friends who warmly greeted us when we moved to SC in 2002. I became a realtor in 2005, selling new homes, and she brought me my first buyer! The room is always filled with her smile and laughter, which is what I will miss the most.

“ Dan and I were blessed to have known Kathleen for over 20 years! We worked side by side with her in real estate and ended up calling her a dear friend💕 She was so upbeat and happy most of the time, even though she had a tough battle with cancer the past 6-7 years. She was my inspiration and will be missed so much! Kate was so loved and cared for by her husband Peter and her two sons. May God fill the hearts of all her family and friends with His comfort and peace, knowing she is now with the Lord💕 Rest In Peace, Kathleen, until we meet again🙏
