“ To all of Kay's family and friends: My deepest condolences. Ms Kay was always very good and gracious to me, she had a wonderful heart of gold, it is no wonder that God has chosen for her to be with him. May he lighten your hearts in you grief, help you to forget the down times and refresh your memories of the good times. God Bless you all. Much love...##imported-begin##Lori Grbich##imported-end##

“ Aunt Kay is the kindest heart I have ever known. May you continue to feel comforted by the support and love of all the family and friends. Please do not be unhappy because shes out of sight , remember she will be with you every morning, noon and nite. And when its time for you to go....from that body that is free, remember youre not going..... your coming here to me. I just know shes with Jesus and surrounded by Angels. Love, Barbara, Neil and Brittany. In Lv and Idaho.##imported-begin##barbara cosenza##imported-end##
