

Kelly Jean Alderman

January 16, 2006

Kelly Jean Alderman, 28, beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, cousin, and friend past away. Her death was sudden and unexpected. She was a resident of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, formerly of Morgantown and Buckhannon, West Virginia. Born August 31, 1977 in Buckhannon, she was the daughter of Randall Mark Alderman and the late Merry Christmas Calacino Alderman. She is survived by her father and his wife, Jerilyn of Buckhannon; her sister, Amanda Gale Alderman of Stephens City, Virginia; her grandmother, Lois Alderman of Buckhannon; four uncles, Gary Alderman and his wife Jan of Salem, Joe Calacino, Jr. of Shady Spring, Bobby Calacino of Beckley, and Toney Calacino of Knoxville, Tennessee; two stepsisters, Debra Drumheller of Thomas, West Virginia, and Stephanie Drumheller of Charlottesville, Virginia; several cousins and many wonderful friends. Also preceding her in death were her maternal grandparents, Joe and Helen Calacino of Shady Spring; and her paternal grandfather, Woodrow W. Alderman of Buckhannon. Kelly graduated from Buckhannon-Upshur High School in 1995. She was a hard worker, and was pursuing an Associates Degree with the University of Phoenix in the field of information technology, one of her many passions. Kelly loved and was devoted to her family and friends. She had a generous heart and a love for computers, technology, rocks and crystals, animals, the beach, 80s music, and all things Star Trek. Her talents included designing web pages, creating jewelry, tending to her plants and exotic fish, and helping her technologically challenged family and friends. Kelly will be sadly missed and will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved her. A special thank you to John E. Williams of Falls Church, Virginia. Kelly's request for cremation was honored. A memorial service will be conducted Saturday, February 4, 2006 at Chapel Hill United Methodist Church at 2:00 p.m. in Buckhannon. Condolences may be expressed to the family at 3 Westphelia Way, Buckhannon, West Virginia, 26201.

“ I am so sorry to hear of my dear friends passing, I grew up next door to Kelly and her family. We met when we were 11 and we graduated high school together, Kelly had a different perspective on life than most. She was so much fun growing up with. We share alot of memories together. Even our Barbie days! : Mandy will appreciate that. God Bless all those souls who had a chance to know of Kelly, she was an outstanding woman. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Michelle Brady Groves##imported-end##

“ Kelly to me will always be remembered with smiles and fond memories. I did not have the fortune of knowing her personally, but on discussion boards. Her charm and intelligence and wonderful sense of humor shone through wherever she went. Boltini's taking a "nibble" of Nibbles, and her various responses to that bait... Well, these were good times with her that will never be forgotten here. Blessed journey, dear Kelly. My sincerest condolences and prayers to Kelly's family and friends.##imported-begin##D'Alaire Marti##imported-end##

“ I did not have the honor of knowing Kelly personally, but I have enjoyed her posts at TrekBBS. It is easy to see what a decent and wonderful human being she was by all the love and caring she has inspired in others. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends...but please don't forget to celebrate what surely must have been a very bright and special life.##imported-begin####imported-end##

“ When I first found out about Kelly's passing, my heart sank. It continues to do so. I did not have the opportunity to get to know Kelly very well; I knew her only as her online persona "Nibbles" and later through her message board, KellyzKorner. The Korner was and is a wonderful playground for the creative soul in me and I have made and continued many friendships there. For that I will forever be indebted to Kelly and to her friend John. It is a gift I will treasure always. The absence Kelly has left in our community is very wide and will not soon be healed, and though I barely knew her I find the days are less bright without her here with us. From the remembrances on our board it is obvious that Kelly was a wonderful, creative, warm, funny, intelligent and caring person, and to have her taken from us so early is indeed tragic. My condolences and prayers are with the Aldermans, John, and all of Kelly's friends during this most difficult of times. Rest in peace, dear Nibbles... and thank you for everything.##imported-begin##George S. Nader##imported-end##
