“ My thoughts and prayers are with you today. I just learned of your great loss and the world's great loss. Your husband, father, brother, friend, Kelly always put a smile on the face of everyone he met. He certainly was a pleasure to work with and I had that honor of working with him a few times. The shock of finding out about his death makes me cry... and send your family all my prayers for comfort.

Sincerely,

“ The loss of Kelly is such a terrible tragedy for those who called him friend and there are many. He really cared about people and showed it in many ways. We became friends by virtue of being members of the Assoc of Realtors and more so when I moved to the Villas. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and that the wonderful memories will comfort them at this time of sorrow.
