“ *RIP Ken.
To a man that has always been there for me from the first time we met. Ken always answered my beckoning call with “Hey bubba, what you need?” I’m gonna miss you more than most! I’m crying now in my selfish way knowing I won’t be able to sit around a fire with you or fish with you or have you tell me how bad I’ve done cleaning a deer. I know you somehow someday will still protect and guide me like you have your own family. I’m truly honored to have been able to have you as a friend and a brother! Greg Williams*

“ We all loved "Big", as we so affectionately called him back in the day. He was one of the good guys and will truly be missed! I still have his bag of orange slices he told me to keep for him so he could eat them when he came back to work. His laughter and smile will be missed by us all here at compass cove. He always came by the gift shop and we would reminisce about the old days, that I will miss the most. Rest in peace Ken, and if heaven has a door... open it and come and pay us a visit us when you can.💔

“ Ken, you are my uncle, but for some strange reason I barely remember referring to you as Uncle Ken, except maybe when I was a young little girl, so Uncle Ken----I Love you and I'll miss you very much..Fly with the ANGELS, our family has many ANGELS in Heaven, so you most definitely will be with and surrounded by the best...Once again, I Love you, and be at Peace... Always, Melissia Holmes

Even though I haven't seen you in many years, I haven't forgotten the good friend you were to me. I never will. Its sad that time and life separates people, even when miles don't. You were OUR "Big". I always said that "Big" stood for your Big Heart. Rest in peace my friend
