“ Judy,I can tell you Ken gave it all he had because he told me so. He also expressed his love for you..."I don't know what I would do without Judy, I depend upon her for everything..."I,too, lost a friend and classmate...it is a shame I did not know him better in High School because in our short time together, we both learned we had a lot in common. I'm a better man for having known him for just a short while. Time and Pray will make this pass...so much to do, so little time. Judy, stay busy through the Holidays and family oriented...stay strong for the family, Ken would have wanted that. “ Judy, our thoughts and prayers have been with you and Kenny during the past few years. We will always remember the 70th birthday party and how much fun we all had hearing the stories from the past. That is the way that we will always remember him - so full of life and surrounded by his friends and family. You were wonderful to him and just as you were lucky to have him, he was more so to have you. Julie, I know what it is to lose a Dad - always remember his love for you and the laughs you shared. Cindy and Steve, you both brought joy into Kenny's life and he was so proud of you both. We're glad you were there to help him in his final days. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers during the upcoming holiday season. Remember, he's having a grand reunion with his mom, dad, brother JD, aunts, uncles and grandparents. “ Judy please know you and your family are in our prayers..Ken is with his heavenly father with no pain and suffering receiving his well earned rewards...Ken was that lil pinch of reality at Bluegreen...I think if Ken had his pick of days to go home Veterans Day would have been right up there.. His patriotic convictions were always refereshing and heartwarming along with his stories of his service to the country he loved so dearly...He has the best seat in the house and is making sure those planes are being refueled properly...I will always remember him giving my Abygail the beautiful basket you made for her and the look on his face..that duck is still her favorite bath toy 3 yrs later ...Ill have a cigar for him tonight!! “ I am a long time friend of Judy's, as we lived in Maryland together and our kids grew up together. My memory of Ken is recently after we had first moved to the Myrtle Beach area; my husband and I had lunch with them Judy and Ken, and we rode around sightseeing the area, they took us to a nice lunch in Murrell's Inlet a quaint little country charm type place, with shops all around, off the beaten path; as we rode around in the car the four of us talking and laughing, Ken made fun of Judy's use of chapstick for her lips which she used a lot he said she had to lubricate her lips to talk so much. something like that but it was real funny at the time. “ Judy, I really don't know what to say about your loss. What came to mind was a poem that I had written a few year ago. It has to do with reflecting on life. So here it is EVENING SKY As I look into the evening sky, I see colors of roses. I think of days gone by; Of you and I. As I look at the sun, it makes me sad to think that it's time is done. As I look into the years, of the time that we had; the joy and tears, not giving into our fears. As I look into the evening sky, it's sad to think that another day is done. But, as with all things, hope and love shows us the way. That no matter what, there will come another day. Hazel B Duvall##imported-begin##Hazel Duvall##imported-end##

He and I Had a lot of fun behind the counter at the theater selling tickets. He had a great sense of humor and during Christmas he always showed up with that Santa hat. I will miss him. “ I'm grateful to Judy and Ken Revels for their open hearts and home that were always ready for the impromptu guest or out-of-town visitor, namely me, from the north. Their hospitality; home-cooked meals that rivaled any Emeril episode, chicken bog, shrimp'n grits, and other Southern delights. Cognac and cigars with Ken, outside of course, are fond memories. Wisdom and "guy talk", stories of the past, Ken was a sage in the living room. I mourn the loss of this great man, but celebrate his life. My thoughts and prayers are with Judy, Steve, Cindy and the others touched by the life of Ken Revels.##imported-begin##Edron Lonaberger, Jr##imported-end##
