“ Like many of my friends, schoolmates, veteran buddies, I have found myself after they have gone that I/we would have loved to share more moments together. I have not talked to Abe in about a year or so, when I found out he had contracted cancer through information from his brother Ronnie. We had a good time growing up, playing sports, and living at the beach, but life moves on, and we all went our ways. I will always remember Abe and cherish the memories of him. I drove all the way from Atlanta to attend he and Lois's wedding. My wife and I always made a point to go to their restaurant in Murrell's Inlet whenever we were that way. That way we kept in touch with both he and Lois. Abe was a character, and that it is what made him Abe. I truly will miss him, and will keep Lois and his family in my thoughts and prayers.
