“ Kevin was a wonderful and caring brother and a kind and fun loving brother-in-law. He enjoyed doing many things with his nephew Mack Pirtle and his wife Bridget and children Elizabeth and Annie Ruth, especially talking sports. He enjoyed joking with his niece Kellea Margaret Grant and her husband David, and talking about the beach and good places to eat. He really took good care of our mother. He will be missed by all.

“ Kevin is my husband's (deceased at 56) cousin. As children and young adults, they used to laugh together with Kevin's dad, Uncle Bill. They played football on the beach of the North Shore, LI. Kevin was kind, dear and selfless. He and I have been in touch off and on since my husband passed and since he moved in to take care of his mother in her older age - he loves his precious daughters who are now grown up -- he was so proud of them! Michele is there taking care of all and I will fly down to join them for the funeral. He will join precious Aunt Marge, funny Uncle Bill and my husband and his parents in heaven! God Bless them all!
