“ Kevin my friend. This is so hard to believe. We hung out in high school when no one else would. You were always a very special person who cared about everyone even if they didn't feel the same. Last time we talked , we were going to meet at beach and got out to eat. This is unbelievable. Now you have all the friends you will ever need. You are with the king right where you wanted to be . Till we meet again my friend . Definitely will miss you

“ Kevin was my baby first cousin. There were 18 of us. We were always a close family, so it is like losing a baby brother. Many wonderful memories of Kevin, his sweet nature will be missed.

I did not know the gentleman, but I wish you had presented the CINO Pin to him, perhaps at a retirement ceremony, so he would have known CCU's appreciation of him.
