

Kimberly Anne Tinkler

March 30, 2008

Kimberly Anne Tinkler, age 27 of Surfside Drive joined her late twin brother, John Emory Tinkler, IV in heaven on March 30, 2008 where they are talking with each other now. Born in New York state, she was the daughter of John E. Tinkler III and Lynda Tinkler. Ms. Tinkler was a student at Horry Georgetown Tech College and loved to read and write. She was a member of Murrells Inlet Church of God. Her loving heart will be greatly missed by all that knew her. Surviving in addition to her parents of Maryland are a sister, Teresa Dayton of Murrells Inlet; fiancé', Joshua Every; nephew, Jeffrey Dayton and her grandmother, Orié Stroud. Services will be 11:00 AM, Wednesday at Murrells Inlet Church of God, Cathedral of Light with Pastor Jeff Grubbs officiating. Memorials may be made to Murrells Inlet Church of God, Cathedral of Light, Murrells Inlet, SC 29576.

“ Dear Lynda, John, and Teresa, There are no words to express the deep sorrow we feel for you. We haven't seen you since Kim and John were in middle school but there are so many fond memories of those early years and our times together. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers and we pray that God's grace will comfort you and give you strength. Taylor sends a big hug to his "Miss Ynda". May you find some comfort in knowing you are being lifted up in our prayers for strength and peace. We love you.##imported-begin##Jeffrey, Donna, Taylor, and Jonathan Klotz##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Tinkler: Kim was so nice to me in high school. I was the new girl and she invited me to hang with her and her friends. I will never forget how sweet and kind she has always been to me. She always made sure I was comfortable and that's enough to make anyone feel special. I am sorry for your loss, truly and deeply.##imported-begin##Tabita Enciu##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Tinkler, I read with sadness your daughter's obituary in The Daily Times. Although you do not know me and I did not know your daughter, I feel as if I know both of you. My son owns Absolute Security Group - of which you are customers - and since we are a small company - we think of our customers as friends and when things happen to them, we share their pain. I am truly sorry for your loss. Please know that all of us here will keep your family in our prayers.##imported-begin##Kathy Bounds##imported-end##

“ The Tinkler Family, Though we haven't talked or seen eachother for a few years, you and your complete family has been in my thoughts and prayers. John was like a brother to me and to this day, I think, miss and love him with all my heart. Now Kim is in a better place where she is complete with her other half. Tink I love you both and miss you dearly. Kim and John couldn't of ask for better loving parents and they were blessed to have lived this life on earth with the both of your guidance and love. My prayers and thoughts are with you both. I love you and will continue to pray to your children in heaven. My heart goes to you all. “ Mr. & Mrs. Tinkler, I was deeply saddened by the news this week. I was blessed to have known both John and Kim. I had one of the best summers of my life living with John at the beach house in OC. If it wasn't for that opportunity I never would have known Kim for more than the girl with the beautiful voice in my chorus class. You both raised two of the most kind-hearted and charismatic children. My life was touched by Kim and John in many ways and I will cherish those memories forever. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. ~Cari###imported-begin###Cari Watson###imported-end##

“ To The Tinkler Family, I have watched a movie over and over called, "What Dreams May Come". The daughter asks, "where do we go when we die". The Mother responds, "We go where everyone else goes....and how can that be bad?" That quote has been etched in my heart. So I share it with you. I pray that you feel peace, I pray that through all of the pain that you feel love ..the essence of what we are...If you are angry, feel angry, if you feel rage, then feel rage, if you feel deep depression, whatever you feel...feel it. Then know in your hearts that behind all of those emotions is something ..call it peace, call it God, Call it Love. That's what we are ... I remember Linda, when my mother passed and you were one of the few that acknowledged it by sending me a plant. Kindness ...I didn't forget!! Much Love Always!!! “ I guess the first thing I would say is I know now Kim is truly happy with John. What can I say you were my sister and he was my brother. And for 10 years I have felt that loss. And now for the rest of my days I will feel a new loss. I loved you Kim and only wish we would have remained as close as we were. But I know when John passed I never felt the same and could only imagine how you must have felt. I wish you were both here but I know you will protect us. Mr. John & Linda I hope you will be stronger now than ever and know how much you mean to me. Thank You for allowing me to take your daughter to prom I will cherish it forever. We'll be here waiting for you guys to come home. Love,
John, Sandra, Buddy, Bianca###imported-begin## John Stro###imported-end##

“ Mr. John, Ms. Lynda & Teresa You guys have been always been there for me over the years and I feel terrible that I wasn't able to be there with you today. Kim was and is the best friend that I've ever had and I will love her with all my heart forever. You truly raised such a special person and how I was lucky enough to be part of her's and your lives I will never know. I know she is complete again now that she is with John and that is where she will be eternally happy. My prayers are with you all and I hope that I can share this all with you in person soon. “ I guess the most cherished times are when you were always ready to go camping with us. You and Michele would spend an hour getting ready to go to the campsite pool or to the pavillion and sing Madona on stage. I always injoyed having you go along with us wherever we went, you were like my second daughter. I will keep your memory alive in my heart until the day I join you and your brother and we see each other again... You will be missed greatly!!!
