From my earliest memories at Calvary and many good years on the field playing softball with my girl, I loved her. She was my little Sis in school. From the day she got married and the memories we shared becoming Mothers .. she was happy and she was fulfilled. Miles and years separated us, but never our love. I remember her telling me most recent, "I want to see you one more time!" What I wouldn't have gave to do just that. I loved her beyond words and I cherish the friendship always. My love and prayers to you all in the coming days ahead. May God hold you all close and in the palm of His hands!
