“ Dear family, The memories go so far back that I could never share them all, but they were all heartwarming. I can honestly say that Kim was cared for and treated no less than amazingly! She was so loved and I know she felt it and left this world in peace. My most sincere apologies for being so out of the Inlet Loop. But know I love you all and am thinking of you so much!!!! We will all see Kim again one day!!

“ Pansy, Gail , Ginger and Family,
We are so sorry to hear about Kim. She was such a sweet girl. I know you will all miss her. My prayers go up to all of you. Our friendship goes a long way back to when I was about 14 years old. We sure had some good times together and when we all worked at the Oyster Roast. Your mama and daddy were two special people to me and my family.
Love all of you....

“ Pansy and Gail, I am so sorry to hear about Kim. I can truthfully say that no one could have loved and cared for someone any more than you and your family did for Kim. I pray for God to wrap his loving arms around you, comfort your heart and replace the sorrow and pain with precious memories 💜
