

Kimberly D Prater

March 21, 1964 - January 24, 2026

Kimberly D. Prater, age 61, formerly of Lexington, SC, passed away on Saturday, January 24, 2026 at her residence in Myrtle Beach.

Born in Columbia, SC, she was a daughter of the late Barney Richard Prater and Jewell Prater Cammer and her stepfather, Bobby Cammer. Kimberly graduated in 1982 from Lexington High School where she participated as a member of the Rifle Line with the schools marching band. She retired from the South Carolina Dept of Revenue after many years of service. She was a music enthusiast and enjoyed attending concerts with friends. She also loved Nascar and football and attended many races and football games to cheer for her favorite teams. Kim loved meeting new people and had a passion for making others smile, even when she was the patient.

She is survived by the loves of her life, four cats, Nuggie, Noodle, Bat Man and Big Boy.

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to All 4 Paws, 708 Petigru Rd. Pawleys Island, SC 29585 <https://all4pawssc.org>

“ We had some good times together aunt Kimmie! From our shenanigans to late night talks and just having fun cutting up. Craziest thing was when some of my buddies (who you just met without knowing they were my buddies) posting pictures of you partying with them down at Carolina Rebellion. You always knew how to have a good time and make lasting memories. Cheers auntie. Love you.
