“ It’s been so many years now, you may not view this anymore - I can only hope someone in his family will see this. I have thought of Lamar many, many times over the years since we went to school together and had tried numerous times to find out where he was, only I did not have information needed to locate him. Our last contact would have been at the age of 11 when we were going to Lewis School on New Bern Avenue in Raleigh, NC. He was my very first “puppy love” and I guess that’s why I always remembered him so fondly. My parents and I moved to Beaufort, NC the summer of 1949, shortly before I turned 12, too young for us to have been able to keep in touch. I did find, and meet with some of our classmates (as adults) - Ginger Hester, Mary Sue Stephenson, Henry Hogwood, to name a few - all of whom now are deceased as well. I’ll be 85 in July this year. I do have a couple photos of Lamar that Ginger gave me then. If you read this, contact me by calling (252) 808-2066, or write: Charlene (Harrell) Belton, 226 Old Airport Rd., #24, Newport, NC. I am so proud to know that Lamar had a good life, was happily married with children and had a wonderful career in the Navy. God bless you all. He helped me find you.

“ Barb, My thoughts and prayers are with your family. I have found great comfort in this poem and hope you will too. Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there, I did not die.##imported-begin##Christa Zazinski##imported-end##
