“ Oh Krissy, how sorry I didn't know. I even posted something for you and you were already gone. No one let me know which I understand, but it breaks my heart. I know I never got to know you, but felt like I did from talking with your grandmother. You know how much she loved you. I remember when you were born and regret distance prevented me from watching you and your sister grow up. So here I am almost a year too late, but my love and thoughts are with Cheri and your family. Wish I had known you. All my love, Aunt Patty

“ So sorry to hear that Krissy has passed away. She went through so many trials trying to keep everything together for her children. She can rest now. She was always upbeat in the face of all she had to endure. My heartfelt sympathy to Krissy's children and family.

“ To my beautiful sweet cousin, unselfish to the end. Thank you for holding on until I got here so that Cheri, you, & I could share that final moment together. I would have never forgave myself if I got here to late. As I said you always put others feelings before your own even going so far as to make that your last unselfish act which allowed your loved ones to be in the house and have one another to lean on. I love you always. Pammie

“ I remember how much Krissy and Connor loved the cats behind Grand Strand Nissan. I was so very blessed to have known Krissy. I am sorry I did not stay in touch. Connor and Ryan, your mom was one of the bravest people I have ever known. She loved you both so very much. I wish I could be there. God Bless you all.
