“ Dear Laura and Greg. We just learned of the passing of you sweet handsome son. We're so sorry for your loss. I remember him running around as a little boy when Mom, Leone, Bonita and the rest of the gang would be playing cards and Mom would say Collard slow down your going to hurt yourself. Leone would laugh and say his name is Kyler Loretta! Such sweet memories. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. 🙏❤️

“I can still see Kyler in his "football glory" as a Bruin in CHHS, 1996-1997, and still hear Greg yelling his lungs out in support of his son...awesome!" Laura was right there, too! Kyler's circle of closest friends in their youth during high school and college, and into his death, is a testament of the many impressions that he has left on their hearts and all of our families. I cannot not forget Kyler's last visit with us in Kentucky, in 2019. Kyler bonded with Lonnie, III and Tanner, where he showed himself to be the most and caring individual, an "uncle." Kyler was the most jovial and spirited that I can remember in that time. Memories of Kyler are etched our souls to eternity. Greg and Laura, with your family, you have our sincere condolences for your loss and grief...not alone in your sorrow... Kyler loved and was loved by all of us...

“ *Carmine Family -
My name is Taylor Broderick, now Hale.
Almost twenty years ago now, while at the University of Kentucky, I was fortunate enough to have three (wonderful, sweet, handsome, charming) boys from Elizabethtown as my next door neighbors on Woodland Avenue.
I adored Kyler. I am so grateful for the time I had with him in our glorious youth.
I am so sorry for your tremendous loss; please accept my deepest condolences. Your entire family is in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ Cori and family,

I am so sorry for the loss of Kyler. I was so sad when you guys left Delaware, and never really had the chance to reconnect. Kyler was my first pretend boyfriend, and we would chase each other in the corn fields on the Pepper's farm. I am sure that was Mandy's idea. We would ride mopeds, 4 wheelers, and always in some kind of mischief. Cori, you introduced me to the game of softball that shaped me into the person I am today. Good people get their trophies. I promise God has an enormous one for him. Love, Wendy (Elliott) Mears

“ Greg, Laura, and the Carmine family,

I am still in a state of shock to hear of this news. I can't begin to understand what the entire family is going through right now. Kyler was always that guy who was ready to be with his dad, and his dad's buddies on the golf course having a good time. Always the one walking around with the smile and joking. Always the one wanting to tell and listen to stories. We will miss Kyler.

Please accept my deepest condolences. May God help the entire Carmine family during this time of need.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.
