“ To the beloved of Larry Barnhill, Larry will be missed dearly. Even though we may have not been very close to Larry, he has always been an inspiration to us all. He has served and protected us all at one time or another. He was always in touch with what was going on around us and always there to protect us no matter the consequences. He is and always will be a role model to us all..God Bless his family and may he now rest in peace.##imported-begin##Dennis & Cindy Lowrimore & Family##imported-end##

“ I am thinking about all of you and sending my deepest sympathy and condolences to you and wish I was not so far away and I could be with you. When I think back of my memories of Uncle Lucky I always thought he was so cool. I always wondered why we called him Uncle Lucky and thought that was the coolest name. When I was growing up, I thought he looked kinda like Elvis. His hair was always perfect like Elvis! When Susan started doing his hair it looked even better. He also gave great hugs whenever I got to see him. He was so proud of his girls and he loved them very much. My thoughts are with you Patsy, Gail, Susan and Patrick, and the rest of the Barnhill family. Love, Dawn##imported-begin##Dawn Ross##imported-end##
