

Larry A. Palazza

October 29, 1955 - August 18, 2025

Larry A. Palazza, 69, of Murrells Inlet, passed away on August 18, 2025, at Tideland's Waccamaw Community Hospital.

Born on October 29, 1955, Larry was the beloved son of the late Albert Palazza and Alice Cambra Palazza Greco. After Albert's passing, Larry was lovingly raised by his stepfather, Joseph Greco, who became a strong and guiding presence in his life.

With a career spanning over five decades, Larry took great pride in his work in the trucking industry, serving as both a company driver and an independent owner/operator. He was highly regarded for his skill, dedication, and commitment to safety, earning numerous awards and the respect of his peers. Outside of work, Larry was a man of many passions. He was an avid fisherman, a motorcycle enthusiast, and a lifelong lover of music—especially the blues and his favorite artist, Joe Bonamassa. A talented cook with a quick wit and a heartwarming sense of humor, Larry brought joy and laughter to those around him—traits lovingly passed down from his mother.

Above all, Larry was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a proud grandfather. He shared an unbreakable bond with his son, Ryan, and found immense joy in his grandson, Liam.

Larry was preceded in death by his son, Ryan Michael Palazza; his parents,

Albert and Alice; and his brothers, Richard, Frank, and Sonny Palazza.

Larry is survived by his loving wife, Eileen Anne Palazza; his cherished grandson, Liam Gallagher; and his nephew, Dennis Palazza and his wife Linda, along with great-nieces and nephews: Holly Palazza-Luzenko, Nicholas Palazza, Mackenna Palazza, and Noah Palazza.
