

Ms. Lathina Singletary

September 1, 2020

Atlanta...

Lathina Singletary, age 55, passed away Tuesday, September 1, 2020.

On a nice autumn day, a baby girl, Lathina Singletary was born to Pastor James Cuyler and Addie Singletary Sturgis, in Rochester, NY. She was the joy of the late grandparents: Henry B. (Addie) Singletary, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cuyler, Sr.; also, memories always remain for Taylor Singletary, Lathina's daughter, who preceded her to the spiritual realm.

Destined to Be Special God allowed her to breathe the first fresh air of the earth and she inhaled the smell of the ocean and other creations of God's world. She fell in love.

Lathina, also affectionately known as Tina and Thina Bear grew to enjoy life as she grew up in Rochester and Bayboro (SC); her spiritual life included the Baptist ministry where she enjoyed bible study and embraced the Word of God.

As an avid reader, Tina loved the adventure of literature and the gift of seeing the world through books. As Lathina continued her love for reading, she was inspired to become an author.

As a lover of the ocean breeze, it was evident that Tina became mesmerized by God's gifts of love. Nature was Tina's passion.

Dedication Tina's career started in Richmond VA at a technology plant where she enjoyed the application of scientific knowledge. This fascination led to her entering a radiology school to learn the bases of becoming an X-Ray technician. The supervisory staff recognized Lathina's intellectual abilities and encouraged her to study to become a Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) Technician. After securing the knowledge of understanding digital imaging and the application of technology to diagnose and save lives, Tina was on her way to a career in Healthcare.

On the Frontline Tina moved to Atlanta, Georgia in 2008 where she joined the MRI Team at Emory University Hospital (EUH) Midtown. She was known as one of the "BEST" MRI Technicians at EUH.

Surviving are Her mother, Addie Singletary Sturgis of Rochester, NY; Father, Pastor James (Georgia) Cuyler of Rochester, NY; Her siblings, Duane (Angela) Cuyler, Jamie Cuyler, Serena (Ronnie) Cotton, Belinda Floyd Sturgis and Denise Buntley, all of Rochester, NY; nieces and nephews, , Raayzine Fountain, Addie Sanders, William Graves, Justin Graves, JJ Graves, Juquan Close and Destiny Sturgis ; Three (3) uncles, Clarence Singletary of Loris, SC, Troy Singletary of Washington, DC, and Michael "Budda" Singletary of Conway, SC; Five (5) Aunts, Marthena Grate (Louis) Morant of Georgetown, SC; Moszett Dillon of Fredrickburg, MD; Eloise Lowe of Conway, SC , Tammy Jones of Laplata, MD; and Seival Goings of Little River, SC; God-daughter, Kelle Page; very special friends, Dorothe Harriel and Allyson Jordan Harris, both of Atlanta GA; And a host of great nieces and nephews, relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be held at 12:00 PM Tuesday, September 8, 2020 at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Loris Chapel with Minister Tammy Jones officiating.

The family will receive friends Monday evening from 6:00 PM- 9:00 PM at the funeral home.

Memorial donations may be made in Lathina's memory to Emory Healthcare- XRay, 3000 Shakerag Hill, Peachtree City, GA 30269.

Due to COVID-19 and CDC regulations, masks are required at the services.

“ Thina, I will never forget you, or meeting you in 1983 in Ithaca at GJR. Your infectious smile, your laughter, sense of humor and HUGE heart. I am so sad you left us so soon my sister, God always takes the angels first to surround him. God be with your family my friend, and rest in peace my love. I hope heaven is on the ocean and you're walking the beach waiting for us all. Peace to you my sister

“ I can feel the presence of the Lord
And I'm going to get my blessing right now”- one of the last days Lathina worked, she came in the room singing these words.

You were great, full of life, humble and selfless. You will be missed - Lamarcus
