“ Lauren was my best friend in 7th grade. We had a million inside jokes and she'd always make me laugh so hard I cried. She and I were both outcasts at school and looking back, I was so lucky I had her.

We remained friends for a few years after we both moved to different states. We'd talk on the phone and send each other letters. After some time, life happened and we lost touch. I always regretted it. A couple years ago, I searched all over social media to try and reconnect with her and after a couple hours, I found this obituary and learned that she had passed away years ago. Ever since then I've thought about her every day.

Lauren, you were always special to me and I'll never forget our time together. I hope you are at peace.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away

“ it saddens me greatly, i just found out about her passing today (5-3-2014 @ 12:31pm). i only barely survived a recent Horrific Car Accident. i received a broken neck in 3 places with 2 traumatic brain bleeds. so her passing hits me hard, because i almost joined her.

Lauren was planing on moving to my area so we would rent a apartment together. she has a beautiful heart and i agree her mind is always artistic.i will always love her and i'll be thinking of her immensely for the foreseeable future. "i hope your finally happy and pain free Lauren"
