“ My sincerest condolences to Pernell, Lynne, and Russell in the loss of your dad. I know your mom has waited a very long time for him to join her in Heaven. Your mom, Helen, was my best friend from the first grade forward in school. After we were grown and had children of our own, just about every time I saw Helen we would “catch up” on things going on in our lives, and she always would start with Lavon and you children. She loved him and you all so very much. I remember attending her graveside service at Hillcrest Cemetery and it was the coldest day with freezing winds. I will never, ever, forget Helen or your Dad. May they Rest in Peace.
