

Lenora Armenta Tompkins

December 23, 2005

Lenora Armenta Altman Tompkins, 83, wife of E.B. Tompkins of Henry Road died Friday, December 23, 2005 at her residence following an illness. Mrs. Tompkins was born in Florence county, a daughter of the late John Henry and Etta Lenora Nettles Altman. She was predeceased by two grandchildren, Terry Michael Jordan and Carlton Butler, Jr.; three brothers, Ryland Altman, Garland Altman, and Coland Altman; and a sister, Henrietta Smith. Mrs. Tompkins was a member of Mt. Ariel Freewill Baptist Church. Surviving in addition to her husband of Conway are: one daughter, Etta Lenora Williamson Butler of Conway; 4 granddaughters, Wanda Jordan, Loretta Larrimore and her husband Danny, Eva Butler, all of Conway, and Sonia Jogerst and her husband Bill of Hampton, Virginia; 13 great grandchildren; and 17 great great grandchildren. five brothers, Reginald Altman and his wife Shirley of Conway, Midland Altman and his wife Dorothy of Myrtle Beach, John Henry Altman, Jr. and his wife Ruby of Loris, Outland Altman and his wife Joyce of Stark, Florida, and Lykesland Altman and his wife Carolee of Tacoma, Washington; two sisters, Alvilda Tompkins and Kathleen Hatcher, both of Conway; ; Funeral services will be 11:00 am Tuesday from Mt. Ariel Freewill Baptist Church with Rev. Ronald Hewitt officiating. Burial will follow in Eaddy Ford Cemetery in Johnsonville. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 6 until 8 Monday. Memorials may be sent to In-Care Hospice of Horry County, 1261 Highway 501 East, Suite C, Conway, SC 29526 or to the Alzheimer Association, PO Box 80459, Charleston, SC. 29416. Goldfinch Funeral Home,

Conway Chapel is in charge of arrangements.