

Leo Pulcinella

December 6, 2008

Conway.....Leo Pulcinella, age 81, of Conway died December 6, 2008 at Conway Medical Center. Arrangements will be announced at a later date. Goldfinch Funeral Home Conway Chapel will be in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ My condolences go Leo's children. I shall miss Leo while playing with Corky Cocoran and I at various Nursing Homes and Kiwanas. The patients in the Nursing Homes loved to hear him sing Sinatra songs and could sing along with him. He was a great friend and will be sorely missed. While I was in the hospital he called each day and visited and brought things for Janice Hall that she needed while sitting with me all days and nights I was hospitalized. I really appreciate that. He would always say on his phone "Be back in a flash" I wish this was so now friend. We miss you. I know now you are in Heaven and sitting on the right hand of Jesus and are in a better place and maybe teaching someone to play base! Good Bye my friend, Tony Capolingua###imported-begin##Tony Capolingua###imported-end##

December 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Leo will be missed by all who knew him. He was a lifelong musician, but I knew him as a lovely person and a beginning writer. His writing showed a gentle, happy soul who loved life.###imported-begin##Tibby Plants###imported-end##

December 14, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Leo, we loved you, for your musical ability, your writing that you enjoyed so much, and your sweet personality. Keep writing your stories and singing your songs. Save a place for when the class meets again! Love,###imported-begin##Annie Pott###imported-end##

December 09, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ It was a joy to know Leo and to listen to his wonderful musical talent. We will miss him.###imported-begin##John & Joan Rigby###imported-end##

December 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM