Sylvia and Family - We were both troubled to here of Leon's passing. We also know the last few years have been difficult for you all, but must tell you, the last time we stopped in to see him, when down south, he was the old regular "GENTLEMAN" that we will always remember him by. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Ron and Ann Every

This comment is 8 years belated but filled with sincerity. I learned only yesterday of Lee's passing as I read about his induction into the Kingston High School sports "Hall of Fame". My dad knew Lee at IBM and their careers in Kingston overlapped for many years. Lee was my supervisor when I was hired during college years to work as part of the IBM Recreation Center staff. I remember the nights he would work late and his wife, Sylvia, would bring a picnic basket dinner and both small boys to meet Lee at the center. It was always such a homey scene. Lee was loved by the staff and he certainly showed me many kindnesses during the three summers I worked for him. These memories were formative and made a lasting life long impression. Of particular note, was his keen interest in young people, knowing how they saw the world, how they approached issues of the time....and listening, just careful listening. He was great with young adults and influenced a lot of lives just by being who he was. He is not forgotten and I am glad to have known him.
