“ Dad, You showed me what it was like to earn a living and to try to help somebody out whenever I can. I didn't understand all that when I was younger, but I do now. When I am telling my kids something, and then I think to myself, "damn, I sound like dad". That's a good thing. You were one of the toughest guys I know and I am trying to be that tough now. It's kind of hard though. I will miss hearing you talking through mom in the background while we were on the phone. And you were right, the blueberry bushes are loaded and we will take care of them as you would have. I will miss you dad. I love you and when I see you again, we will go fishing at the lake. Love, Stevie###imported-begin###Steve###imported-end##
