“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ McDowell Family,

I am so sorry to hear about Mrs. Mc. She was a fine lady and a caring nurse. I was on my way to surgery late one Friday night. All my family had gone home thinking nothing would happen until the next day. Once the doctor got a look at my x-rays, he decided we shouldn't wait. Mrs. McDowell offered to hold my jewelry for me until my family got there. It meant a lot to me. She didn't have to put herself in such a vulnerable position.

May God comfort you.

“ To the McDowell Family:

May you be continually comforted by pleasant thoughts of happier times together. And may the “peace of God that excels all thought”, sustain you. (Philippians 4:7)

My condolences, SBA.

“ I will always remember Aunt Letha's gift for giving me excellent advice. She was a good role model for us all and I loved her very much. I could talk to her about anything and she would listen and not pass judgement. She was a true, real person in every way and I will miss her deeply. Go Rest High On That Mountain Aunt Letha, and tell uncle Dub, Pop, Grandma and Paige that I love and miss them.

Love always,

Your niece
