

Letha Rebecca "Becky" Morgan Miller

August 27, 1964 - February 10, 2020

Letha Rebecca "Becky" Morgan Miller, 54, formerly of Jacksonville, FL, and Myrtle Beach, SC, died Monday, February 10, 2020, at her home in Bedfordshire, England.

The oldest of 5 children, Becky was born in Jacksonville, FL, to Millie [now Skowronski] and Melvin Morgan on August 27, 1964. A free spirit and an adventurous soul, Becky had a great love for her family and her many friends worldwide. After she had raised her daughters and served as a military spouse, her daring spirit took her to Kyrgyzstan and several air bases in England, where she supported US and NATO personnel and their families with child development services and logistical support for the construction of the RAF Embassy. Becky's zest for life, her laughter, and her giving spirit will be missed by all who knew her.

Becky is survived by her husband, John McCullen, of Hampshire, England, and 4 daughters: Laura Satterfield, Callie Miller, Monica Miller, and Samantha Miller. In addition, she leaves 4 grandchildren: Laila Satterfield, Corra Bowker, Isabella Hazlett, and Theodore Satterfield; she was predeceased by granddaughter Luna Jimenez. She is also survived by 4 siblings: Margaret Eaves, Joanna Thomas, Melody Autry, and Melvin Morgan

“ I remember the first day Becky and I met outside the security office at RAF Lakenheath
I had said that no matter what and how feelings might change I would give Becky the best hug I could
And when I did I suddenly felt that once in a lifetime connection and knew that Becky was the one I wanted to spend the rest of my life with and love with heart and soul
