MaMaw, I am so glad I visited with you only two weeks ago. You looked so pretty sitting there in your bed with your "baby" there (she was a faithful and loving puppy always). Our conversation was so loving, we spoke of Pa and my mother and my late husband... tell them hello up there in heaven. You caught up on all of us, my children, April and Eddie, Ellen and Thomas's children too. Why you even asked of Eddie's father. It was so special how you told me my 1 year old grandson was a handsome little boy and that Ellen's grandson looked like my Mama. Sharp as a tack... that's how you were ... and will always be in my memory. Thank you for the love you gave to us so freely. We Love You... I Love You.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. "For God is near to those broken at heart." Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when "death will be no more." Revelation 21:4

“ To all of the kind neighbors and "family" who helped our step-mother over the years, a heartfelt thank you. Lillian was a generous person to our dad and we will be thankful to her for those gifts.
