“ Danny, Ricky, Jerry and Wanda, I am so sorry to hear about Maw. I am so glad Angie called me wish I could have known earlier but Im sending my prayers and thoughts to all of you. You all know we loved Maw so much. I thank God for all the years Mama and Maw were so close. I know how hard it is to lose a Mother just losing mama in January. She loved your mom very much and so did Randy and I. I am so thankful neither of our moms are hurting today and that helps us get through. We will see them both soon. Love you all.

“ It broke my heart when I heard the news. Ms Lillian was a gentle soul who lit up Walmart when she came in. I love Wanda like a sister and I always made it a special point whenever I saw Ms Lillian to speak to her and ask how she was. I am truly sorry for the loss of Ms Lillian. My heart goes out to the whole family, especially to Wanda and her children. May God comfort you and give you strength in this time of loss.

“ To the family of Ms. Williamson,
I offer my sincerest condolences. Dealing with the death of a loved one is one of the hardest things that we have to deal with in life. But I find comfort in the Bible scripture at Job 14:14 when Job asks, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again?" That question was answered in the very next verse when it says, "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." So Jehovah God has promised that he will resurrect our loved ones who have died. I pray that until that time comes that you throw your burden on Jehovah as Psalm 55:22 says to help you gain the strength to make it through each day.

“ Mrs. Williamson was the grandmother-in-law of my brother Rick Hannum. She loved him like he was her own. That memory alone will always make me appreciate the type of woman she was. With all my love and prayers to her family. Lynn Hannum Pack
