“ We are coming up on two years without my mom. It has been the hardest two years of my life. She was my best friend, my biggest supporter, and the one I turned to whenever I needed guidance. She always encouraged my brother and I to chase our dreams. My brother is now living in Spain working with their soccer teams and pursuing his dream career in sports management. I'm working in an animal hospital, chasing my dreams as well. I wish she could be here because I know she would be proud. Thank you all for your kind words. Reading your memories of her brings me great comfort when the grief is too much to bear. Please continue to share your stories, photos, etc. so she can live on in your hearts (and mine).

Hello, Kathleen! I've never heard much about my mom's previous husband. Would you ever be interested in connecting so I can learn more about her life before she met my dad? Thank you for your kind words.

Hi Greg! This is Jamie. Yes, I do remember you. That was one of my first concerts and it fostered a love for going to shows. You bought me a pit pass so I could be front row with my friend, it's something I will never forget. Thank you for your kind words, my mom is missed every single day. I hope you are doing well.

“ Linda was my friend at work, I'm sorry I didn't know here better because she was the kind on person I would call my friend. She had the way to make you feel welcome where ever she was. Thanks for looking out for me at work, not the same without her there.

Will miss you always, Miss Brandy
