“ Linda and I grew up together in Miami as neighbors. She was on of the sweetest girls I have ever known. We shared many years together as kids. We were separated by miles but not in my heart. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. Condolences to all of her family.

“ Linda was my aunt and my best memories were at her big house in hickory and all her cats she loved. I loved visiting her. I will truly miss her but this is a time of not sadness that she is gone because she's not. Instead we retell the memories and the love of family. Linda has reunited with others who have pasted such as my grandparents. So one day I know I'll see her again, it might be a long time.

“ Linda was a true light in this world. She was a wonderful mentor to me, and always encouraged me when I didn't have the confidence in myself. I used to say I looked up to her like a mom, and she was always quick to let me know that she was not old enough to be my momma, lol. We met in 2004 when I first got a job at CVS. She would always come and pull my drawer and count it for me. I was always worried that I would disappoint her, and somehow never did. Later on when I became a shift supervisor, she was almost as happy for me as I was. Through the years we have swapped many stories and helped each other with advice and kind words. Holidays were always a big thing for her NOBODY could hoard holiday items like Linda Faith. She took Halloween and Christmas to a whole other level! She was a fine lady, married to a very fine man. Bill, We want you to know that we are just across the lake from you, and anytime you need us, all you have to do is call. Heaven is a more beautiful place now that Linda is there. She will certainly be missed by many, and loved by all who got to know her.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
