

Linda Schuler Foerster

May 28, 1953 - December 6, 2022

It is with a heavy heart that the family of Linda Schuler Foerster, 69, announces her passing on December 6, 2022. Linda passed away peacefully at her home surrounded by family.

Young at heart and in spirit, she and her beloved husband, Richard Foerster, built their dream home in 2013 in Surfside Beach, SC. They had been coming to the beach since the late 1980's and raised a family in Avon, CT. They were married for 47 years.

She was the daughter of Russell and Dorothy Schuler, born and raised in Irondequoit, NY, and survived by her brother, Terry Schuler, sister-in-law Diane, both Webster, NY residents as well as neighbors in Surfside Beach. She is survived by husband Richard and their children, Megan Foerster of NY, NY and Andrew Foerster, wife Elizabeth, and grandchildren Madeline and Sophie of Los Angeles, CA.

Linda was an incredibly creative and joyful soul. A true artist with an impressive eye for detail, she loved to design in her craft room and explore her passion for handmade creations. She was an award-winning quilter with endless talent for embroidery, needlework and colored pencil drawings. An entrepreneur at heart, she made and sold her designs online. She had a degree in communications and held a senior position for an insurance company, as well as teaching and sales. An avid reader, she recorded every book, with a record year hitting 98 books read! She loved to do yoga, garden, cook and entertain family and friends.
