“ Alanna, my deepest sympathy goes to you and your family in your time of loss. Ms. Linda was a sweet, loving, bold, and honest woman. I loved hearing her stories from her heyday, and enjoyed her cookies at Christmas. Whenever I think about the good times we had together, she was in most of those memories and I will always treasure that. She loved you very, very much, and I'm glad to have known her. I'm praying for comfort, and strength for you. God bless.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (Revelation 21:4 KJV)

“ Linda, Tony and Jim were all friends of mine. Good people with good hearts. Whenever I spoke with Linda, Alanna was always a topic of the conversation. She loved her daughter so very much! I know that words cannot heal the loss, but I just wanted to share that Linda's words to me bespoke much love that will never end. Godspeed and RIP, Linda.

“ Linda and Jim, from my limited vantage point, were a great couple. Jim loved to talk, sing, recite his poetry and have a great time. Linda loved to talk, also, but she could never catch up to Jim. They both enjoyed having a good time together, though. Linda took great care of Jim during his darkest days and I imagine she continued to miss him so. I am so sorry at her passing, because our paths did not cross enough during the past few years.
